

February Newsletter

Bright Beginnings Early Learning Program 281-482-7535 ex. 131
Jennifer White—Director Dee Ann Emberton—Asst. Director

Registration

Thank you all so much for turning in your paperwork promptly and helping us to have a successful registration! Remember that if you haven't turned in your 2018-2019 registration and supply fee please do so asap! We will open registration to the public on Friday, February 16th. If you know anyone that may be interested in joining our school please pass this information along!

Community Helpers

We're going to have some special visitors this month as we learn all about helpers in our community. We'll get to talk to a FISS bus driver and meet a real police officer and firefighter. They will teach us all about how we can be safe in our homes and community.

Tuition Due

1 Year Olds (M/W)—$190

1 Year Olds (T/Th) - $195

2 Day (M/W)—$180

2 Day (T/TH) - $185

3 Day—$260

4 Day—$330

Bridge—$350

Open Registration for Church Members

Friday, Feb. 9th

Open Registration for the Public

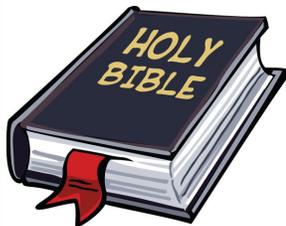

Friday, Feb. 16th

President's Day Holiday

Monday, Feb. 19th

Spring Break

March 12th-16th

"Love each other as I have loved you"
John 15:12

The focus for February is Jesus LOVES everyone! The children will learn how Jesus loved the woman at the well and the woman no one liked. Then we will meet Zacchaeus and observe the love Jesus showed to this man. Finally we will see how much Jesus loved Peter even after Peter denied knowing Him. Jesus LOVES everyone!

Music class will continue to work on rhythm and beat within music and movement. We'll also listen for the differences between fast and slow. We'll sing lots of fun songs that tie into some of our favorite themes, Valentines and Dinosaurs!

In science this month we will be exploring the weather and doing some fun experiments with tornadoes, clouds, and evaporation. We'll also be learning about dinosaurs and will close the month erupting a volcano!!

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business.

Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business.

Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Business Name

Primary Business Address

Your Address Line 2

Your Address Line 3

Phone: 555-555-5555

Fax: 555-555-5555

E-mail:

Your business tag line here.

Organization

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more infor-

Back Page Story Headline

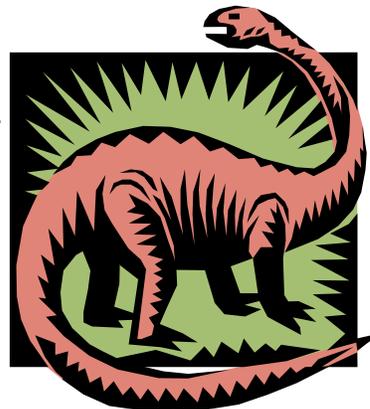

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their