Welcome Back!

We hope you all had a wonderful and restful holiday season. We are so happy to have your children back at school. It is always so exciting to see how much the children grow and mature during the second semester. We know it will be a great 2nd half of the year!

It's already time to start thinking about enrollment for next year. We will be sending home packets on Monday, January 29th. To guarantee your spot for the 2018-2019 school year, you must have them returned no later than Thursday, Feb. 1st. On Monday, January 29th we'll have tables and snacks set up in the gym to allow you time to complete the paperwork before you go! Since there is a quick turn-around this year, we highly encourage you to take advantage of this time! If you are a current Pre-K parent and are interested in enrolling your child in our Bridge program next year, we will have an information meeting on Tuesday, January 23rd at 1:00.

Watch your child's folder for more registration details!

"With God all things are possible"
Matthew 19:26

Our children love to say, "Watch this!" as they accomplish something new. Well, this month we are learning about times when Jesus could have said the same thing as we discover the miracles He performed. First, we will see Him fill a fishing net full of fish and we will watch Him walk on water. Then, we will see Him feed 5,000 people with only a little food and turn water into a fancy party drink. As we discuss these miracles, the children will realize that Jesus is worthy of watching.

This month we'll be singing songs about winter and bears. We'll also learn about the lines and spaces on the music staff. Looking forward to sharing music with all our BB kids!

This month we will be discussing the cold weather and will do an experiment to learn more about it! We'll talk about different types of bears and their characteristics. Our smallest children will even give our bears a check up! We'll finish up the month exploring magnets. Show and Tell will be at the end of the month. Bring something that you wear in the cold or has to do with winter. See your child's teacher for your exact day.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business.

Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Organization

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more infor-

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their
