Important News

Arrival and Dismissal

Our school hours are 9:00-1:30. (Bridge Hours –8:30-1:30) Doors will open at 8:55 to receive children. If you arrive early, we ask that you wait in the hallway while the teachers finish preparing for the day. Dismissal time is 1:30 for all classes. If you are going to be late picking up your child, please notify the office. If you arrive after 1:40, you must pick up your child from their building's office area and sign them out on the late pickup sheet. On the third late pick up you will be assessed a $15 fee for each additional late pick up thereafter.

School Shirts—We are so excited to offer a school shirt for purchase this year. You will be able to choose from a variety of colors. Be on the lookout for your order form!

PTO We hope that you will consider joining our parent organization. Membership information will be sent home soon.

Illnesses—Cold and flu season is upon us. Please keep your child at home if they are not feeling well. The school handbook states: Keep your child at home if, within the last 24 hours, he or she has: evidence of a fresh cold (first 48-72 hours); fever; upset stomach (vomiting or diarrhea); an overall sense of not feeling well; showing signs of a contagious illness. Your child must be free of these symptoms for at least 24 hours without the aid of medication before they return to school.

Bible Time with Ms. Cheryl

David will be our focus this month as we discover how God helps us. We will learn how God helped David protect his sheep and how He helped him defeat the giant, Goliath. We will also discuss how God helped David say good-bye to his friend Jonathan when David moved and then how He helped David, the king, help Jonathan's son, Mephiboseth. We can do great things with God's help!

We have the Lord our God to help us. 2 Chronicles 32:8

Music News with Ms. Kym

Music time will focus on feeling the steady beat of music. The children will work on recognizing fast and slow, all while having lots of fun with songs of the fall season! Classical music for the month is Hall of the Mountain King by Grieg.

With Ms. Karen

In science the children will be making slime using contact solution. We'll also do several experiments with orange balloons, glow sticks and gummy worms! As the month closes we'll observe and study spiders and bats. It will be a creepy,

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business.

Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is

“To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here.”

Organization

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more infor-

Back Page Story Headline

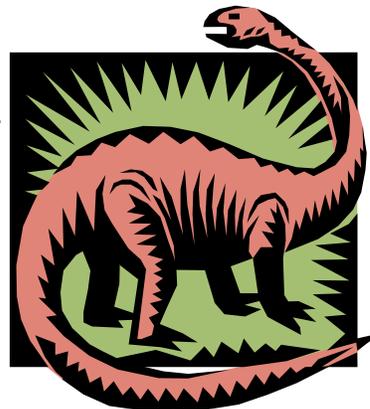

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.
